

I AM FREE

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call, I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day to laugh, to love, to work or play,

Tasks left undone must stay that way. I found that peace at the close of the day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy, a friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, O yes these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow, I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me: God wanted me now ~ He set me Free!

OBITUARY

Grady Lee (Pap) Jackson was born June 5, 1942 in Lauderdale County, Mississippi to the late Major Jackson and the late Ola Myers. Grady accepted Christ later in life. Grady attended Elizabeth School in Lauderdale, Mississippi. He worked as an attendant at Wedgeworth Service Station for a number of years. Grady, also known “Boy Son”, loved watching TV especially Westerns. He also enjoyed listening to music. He was a kind-hearted man who had a few favorite sayings: “Don’t put your foot in my face or you gonna come back with a nub.” Another one of his favorite saying was “You gonna find out the hard way.” The last one was “I don’t play with other folks’ chilluns”.

Grady was preceded in death by his mother, father, four sisters and one brother. He leaves to cherish his memory three sisters: Carrie Barrett and Dorothy Jackson of Meridian and Geneva Pollard of Birmingham, Alabama, one sister-in-law, Lillie Jackson of Meridian; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives and friends.

Recessional

Lord, You have been our dwelling place throughout all generations. Before the mountains were born or you brought forth the earth and the world, from everlasting to everlasting you are God.

Psalm 90:1, 2.
